UNIT 1 · LEARN IT

-ge and -dge

I can... spell words ending in -ge and -dge.

At the end of a word, the 'j' sound is spelt -dge straight after a short vowel: badge, bridge. After any other sound, it is spelt -ge: huge, large, change.

Top tip: Before e, i and y, the letter g often says 'j': giant, gym.

Worked example

We walked over the bri dge .

UNIT 2 · LEARN IT

The /s/ sound spelt c

I can... spell words where c makes the /s/ sound before e, i and y.

The letter c makes the /s/ sound when it comes before e, i or y: ice, city, fancy.

Top tip: c + e, i or y says /s/. c + a, o or u says /k/: cat, cot, cup.

Worked example

Water turns to i ce in the freezer.

Key words

Silent letters: kn, gn and wr

I can... spell words that start with kn, gn and wr.

Some words have a silent letter at the start. In kn and gn you only hear n. In wr you only hear r.

Top tip: Say the silent letter in your head when you spell: k-nee.

Worked example

I write a letter to my grandma.

-le, -el, -al and -il endings

I can... choose -le, -el, -al or -il at the end of words.

The -le ending is the most common: table, apple. We use -el after m, n, r, v and w, and often after s: camel, tunnel, travel. Not many words end in -al (metal) or -il (fossil).

Top tip: Never write -le after m, n, r, v or w.

Worked example

The cam el walked across the sand.

Words ending in -y

I can... spell words ending in -y and change y to i before some suffixes.

The 'igh' sound at the end of a word is often spelt y: cry, fly, why.

If a word ends in a consonant + y, change the y to i before adding -es, -ed, -er or -est. Keep the y before -ing.

Top tip: Keep the y before -ing, or you would get two i's: crying.

Key words

-y

Drop the e or double

I can... add suffixes to words ending in e or in one consonant.

If a root word ends in e, drop the e before adding -ing, -ed, -er, -est or -y: hike → hiking.

If a short word has one short vowel and ends in one consonant, double the consonant: pat → patting.

Top tip: x is never doubled: mixing, boxer.

Key words

Words like all, mother and key

I can... spell words with a before l, o saying 'u', and -ey.

The 'or' sound is often spelt a before l or ll: all, ball, walk, talk.

The letter o can say 'u' in words like mother and Monday. The 'ee' sound at the end of some words is spelt -ey: key, monkey.

Top tip: Words ending in -ey just add -s for the plural: monkeys, donkeys.

Key words

s as /zh/ and -tion

I can... spell words where s says /zh/ and words ending in -tion.

In some words s makes the /zh/ sound: television, treasure, usual. The 'shun' sound at the end of many words is spelt -tion: station, action.

Top tip: -tion is the most common spelling of 'shun' at the end of a word.

-ment, -ness, -ful, -less and -ly

I can... add -ment, -ness, -ful, -less and -ly to root words.

If a suffix starts with a consonant, just add it to the root word:
enjoy + ment = enjoyment. If the root word ends in a consonant
+ y, change y to i: happy + ness = happiness.

Top tip: -ful has only one l: careful, not carefull.

Worked example

enjoy + ment = enjoyment

sad + ness = sadness
