UNIT 1 · LEARN IT

Endings -cious and -tious

I can... spell adjectives that end in -cious and -tious.

If the root word ends in -ce, the 'shus' ending is usually spelt -cious: grace → gracious, space → spacious.

In many other words it is spelt -tious: ambition → ambitious, caution → cautious.

Top tip: anxious is an exception: it is spelt -xious.

11 I felt _____ before my test. (worried and nervous)

How did I do? ☐ Tried ☐ Nearly ☐ Got it!

Endings -cial and -tial

I can... spell words that end in -cial and -tial.

The 'shul' ending is usually spelt -cial after a vowel: official, special.

It is usually spelt -tial after a consonant: partial, essential.

Top tip: initial, financial and commercial break the rule.

Key words

Endings -ant, -ance and -ancy

I can... spell words that end in -ant, -ance and -ancy.

Use -ant, -ance or -ancy if there is a related word ending in -ation: hesitation → hesitant, hesitancy.

Words that end in -ant usually make nouns ending in -ance or -ancy: tolerant → tolerance.

Top tip: Think of a word ending in -ation first: observation → observant.

Endings -ent, -ence and -ency

I can... spell words that end in -ent, -ence and -ency.

Use -ent, -ence or -ency after a soft c (/s/), a soft g (/j/) or qu:
innocent, urgency, frequent.

Words that end in -ent usually make nouns ending in -ence or -ency: confident → confidence.

Top tip: Some words break the rule, so check in a dictionary if you are not sure.

Endings -able and -ably

I can... add the suffixes -able and -ably to root words.

Use -able if you can hear a complete root word (depend → dependable) or if there is a related -ation word (adoration → adorable).

Words ending in -able become adverbs ending in -ably:
reasonable → reasonably.

Top tip: Keep the e after c or g to keep the soft sound: notice → noticeable.

Key words

Endings -ible and -ibly

I can... spell words that end in -ible and -ibly.

-ible is common when you cannot hear a complete root word:
possible, horrible, terrible.

Words ending in -ible become adverbs ending in -ibly:
possible → possibly.

Top tip: If you can't hear a whole root word, try -ible: poss + ible.

Adding suffixes to -fer words

I can... add suffixes beginning with a vowel to words ending in -fer.

When you add a suffix beginning with a vowel to a -fer word, double the r if -fer is still stressed: refer → referring, referred.

If the stress moves away from -fer, do not double the r: refer → reference.

Top tip: Say the new word. Is the stress on 'fer'? Then double the r.

Key words

Hyphens with prefixes

I can... use a hyphen to join a prefix to a root word.

Use a hyphen to join a prefix to a root word when the prefix ends in a vowel and the root word also starts with one: co-ordinate, re-enter.

The hyphen stops the two vowels running together.

Top tip: re-cover (cover again) and recover (get better) mean different things.

Key words

hyphen

prefix

root word

vowel
